

Rädle & Jeremić

Novi život

Rena Rädle & Vladan Jeremić
Novi život - New Life

Psychogeographical research, Novi Sad, Sremska Kamenica, 2005

Novi Sad is the capital city of Vojvodina, 80 km north of Belgrade. For centuries up to these days the region of Vojvodina has been destination for new settlers from South, Middle and East Europe that are now living here in a society shaped by many parallel communities.

Novi život tells a story about two strangers that found shelter at the river bank of the Danube. They try to adapt to their new environment and lead a fishermen's life on the river. Exploring the surrounding they try to find out what's their new life about and amongst other things discover the head of the sphinx.

Usual day

At the Danube near to the shipyard of Novi Sad.

Pipe
Liman II, Novi Sad.

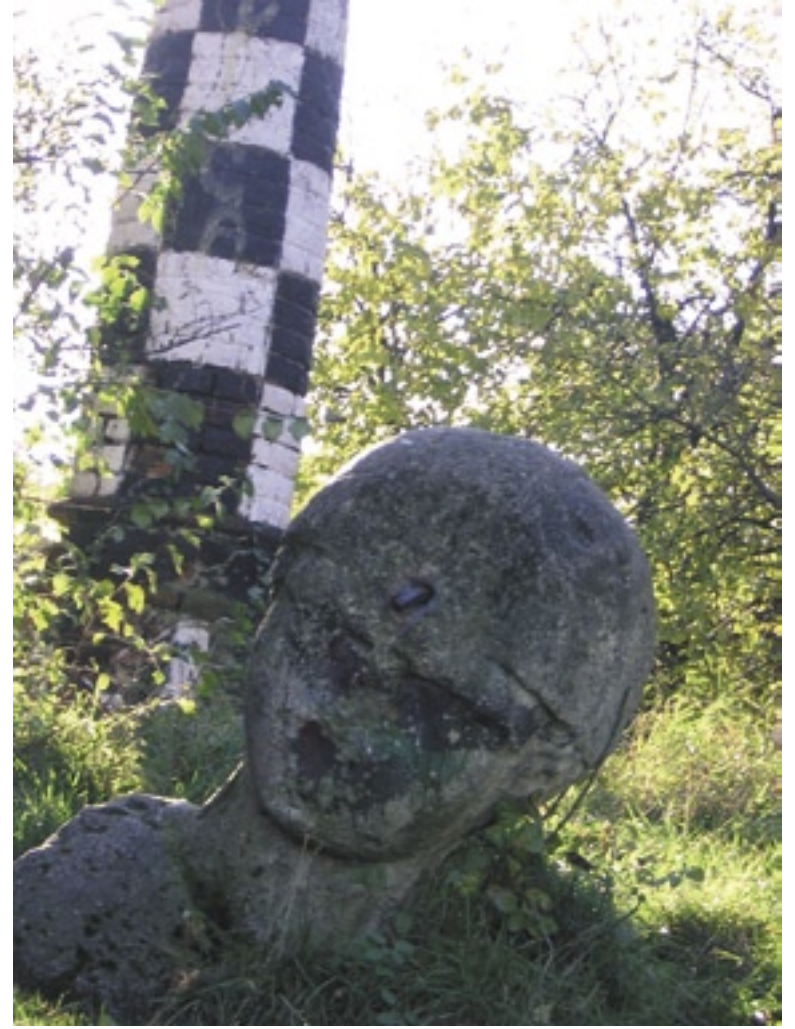

Sphinx

Ribnjak park, Sremska Kamenica.

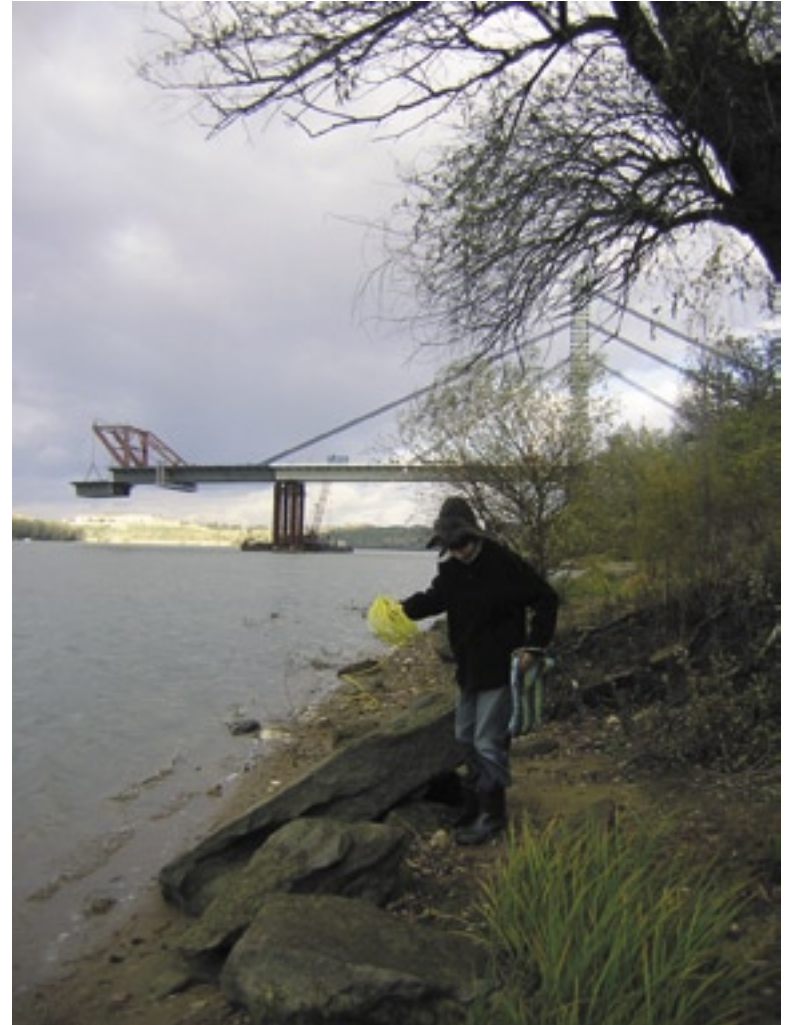

Fishing
At the Danube.

Novi život - New Life

Rena Rädle & Vladan Jeremić

Novi Sad, Serbia, 2006